

Pass on your skills and knowledge

Are you an experienced sports coach with the drive and motivation to develop other coaches?

Just like participants and athletes benefit from training, coaching and support; so can coaches themselves.

Here at Leap, we know it can be a huge help to have support and guidance when you're setting out as a new coach or looking to take the next step, so we're offering coaches in the county a helping hand; and we need experienced coaches like you to mentor them.
